Re: Castro v. Schrager et al.
Case Number: 13 CV 7365 (AT)

Dear Judge Torres:

This office has recently been retained to represent the Defendants in the above-referenced matter. Pursuant to Your Honor's Individual Practices, we write this letter to respectfully request an extension of time on behalf of Defendants to file a response to the Complaint.

Based on our firm's recent retention and the need to speak with our client regarding the allegations in the Complaint, as well as to review relevant documents, we respectfully until December 18, 2013 to file a response to the Complaint. After contacting Plaintiffs' counsel, we were advised that they would only provide us until tomorrow to file the response, but they would not provide a further reason as to why they would not grant this professional courtesy. This is Defendants' first request for an extension of time to respond to the Complaint and the only date that currently appears on the Court's docket is the December 18, 2013 initial conference date. Defendants' request does not affect this date.

We respectfully request that you grant Defendants' request. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Respectfully submitted,
Kaufman Dolowich & Voluck, LLP
